beyond The E-Myth

Awaken the Entrepreneur Within You

A One Day Experience
Featuring Michael Gerber

"If Taking One 8 Hour Day Off This Year Could Solve All Your Business Problems Once and For All... Would You Do It?"

New York Times Best Selling Author of the E-Myth books and business guru Michael Gerber knows that most small-business owners work IN their businesses instead of ON them. This happens because they are missing the fundamental point: The sole and specific reason to build your own business is to provide you with a better life – and more of it. Period. And NOT create a J-O-B. If you are not getting what you want out of your business, or if you feel as if your business is running you, then you can't afford to miss this powerful one day exploration taking you Beyond the E-Myth into a whole new world of opportunity.

This amazing one-day experience will help you start the business of your dreams or rebuild the one you already own. Great businesses require systems. Let Michael Gerber give you the practical know-how to build your own system and become a "Business Development Specialist".
